Find Help Page

Find Help Page with Filtering Options

This screenshot shows the same Peer 2 Peer 'Find Help' page, but with more detailed filtering options. The 'Filter' section on the left now includes checkboxes for 'category', 'Price', and 'Name' under the 'Sort By' heading. The 'Essay Type' section has a list of checkboxes: 'Analysis essay', 'Argumentative', 'Persuasive/persuade', 'Cause and effect', 'Compare and contrast', 'Definition essay', 'Narrative and descriptive', 'Division and classification', 'Creative writing', and 'Other'. The 'Specialties' section also has a list of checkboxes: 'Cover letter', 'Research paper', 'Resume', 'Personal essay', 'Biography', and 'Other'. The rest of the page, including the search bar, navigation links, and the list of tutors, remains the same as in the previous screenshot.

I am a seattle 3rd year LSJ major with a passion for creative writing and poetry. I have worked as a writing tutor for both highschool and undergraduate students for the past 3 years. I love to help others improve their writing skills and feel confident and proud of their work. For fun I enjoy drawing stick figures, eating strawberries, and listening to audio books.

Overall Critiques (Applies to all pages):

During our in-class critique of our high-fidelity samples, we learned that the color palette we chose made the words difficult to read, the simpler designs in our samples were easier to understand and that the user's profile picture was too big. Therefore, in this high-fidelity mockup we adjusted the color palette so it is easier to read, kept the designs of our pages and icons simple, and made the user's profile picture smaller.
